ket at bed rock prices at A. Cohn's people can settle down to the old ever tenor of their ways.

—Rev. W. G. DeLamater will preach Sunday morning and evening at the Methodist Church.

—Wanted—A hard-finished comfortable house with seven or eight rooms. Address this office, stating price and location. * tf.

—Dr. E. G. Winnie, dentist.
Office on Telegraph street, two doors west of Zehner's fruit store. Office hours from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. *

—An elegant piece of decorated china ware was presented to Mr.
A. C. Cleveland recently by an admirer at the Ormsby House.

—There is no danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to Children, as it contains no injurious substance; besides it is unexcelled for colds and croup. Children like it. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

—Several weeks ago the Senate passed a resolution, a bill or something of the sort giving the Judiciary Committee a clerk, and fixing his salary at $5 a day. The Governor signed it and still the clerk is not appointed.

—John Wanamaker, according to reports, pays $5,000 a week for advertising, and now he is about to enter General Harrison's Cabinet as Postmaster General. The connection between the two statements is so obvious that the moral should impress itself on every business man. It pays to advertise.

—And now it comes to pass that the men who represented California in the Chicago convention and who made all the howl and noise over Blaine are in bad odor in California. It has transpired that Harrison doesn't think that he is under any special obligations to the Californians who made such child's play of their opportunities.

California lost a cabinet position by sending a lot of lunatics to Chicago, when it needed politicians who could see beyond their noses.

A Pleasant Resort.

Members and Attaches of the Legislature and the other Winter sojourners at the Capital, can find no pleasanter place of resort for reading the latest papers and magazines and selecting popular books than at Cagwin and Noteware's corner store—diagonally opposite the B. & E. Bank on Carson street.
Here can always be found a" sorts of plain and fancy stationery and general office supplies; besides an endless variety of novelties.

Jewelry Display

There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Rinckel building. The designs are

THE ELECTION.

NEWS COMING IN SLOWLY.

Both Sides Claiming the Lot- tery Fight.

The election yesterday was about the quietest and best natured affair ever witnessed in this city; as one of the cases remarked, it seemed to be a case of where the Democrats and Republicans were voting against the Mugwumps.

Both sides had their workers in the field and were quite earnest in advocating the claims of their respective views of the lottery question. About noon a good deal of merriment was occasioned on the street by the following circular:

LOOK OUT FOR LYING TICKETS.
The Lottery Men Have Them
Out.

See that your Ballots read "No" for No. 22.

The fact that the lottery men got out no such ticket, nor was a single ticket answering the description found in the city, was what caused the merriment, and it was the general opinion that those who were willing to act fairly should not be so ready to suspect unfairness in others.

At noon it was the general opinion that the lottery men had beaten their opponents two to one, but about two o'clock the voting was more even between the opposing parties.

The saloons were all closed and every one was sober and good natured.

It is almost impossible at this late hour to get anything definite relative to the lottery fight.

The dispatches which come over the wire, must all be taken with grains of allowance. They are here given for what they are worth:

Virginia City—The Chronicle of last evening says: The special election is progressing quietly today in all the precincts. The employees of some of the middle mines had a holiday and there was a greater throng of people on the streets than on the National Election day last November. The pro-lottery advocates made the most important showing at the polls, and at noon it was intimated that they had polled a majority of the votes up to that hour.

At Gold Hill the anti-lottery ticket is reported ahead. It is rumored on the street that Senator Jones telegraphed he is opposed to the lottery amendment.

The sack-hunting contingent is more than usually strong, but so far as ascertained no large sum is being disbursed on either side.
The long faces of the anti-lottery element indicates that the Louisiana sack failed to materialize.

Reno—Everything here red hot against the lottery amendment.
Judge Biglow made a powerful speech against it last night in the Methodist Church after the services.

The opposition in the city is very strong, yet a good many votes are going into the box for it and the outside precincts are reported as generally in favor of it.

It is estimated however that the county will give 300 majority against the amendment.

Other estimates from a lottery standpoint figure it down to 200.

Eureka—Lottery seems to have the call here and county is estimated at 200 majority for the lottery amendment.

Tuscarora—The polls are just closing and the lottery people are conceded to have won by about 75 majority.

Wabaska—Vote stood, for lottery 16; anti-lottery 0.

Elko—Strong opposition to lottery amendment here and church people are out in full force.

Outside precinct reported the other way.

General opinion that Elko is anti-lottery by small majority.

Lyon—Dayton, 35 majority for lottery.

Silver City—Strong for lottery amendment.

Lander—No telegraphic returns from Lander, but parties recently in county, figure that Lander will give 50 majority for lottery.

White Pine—No telegraphic returns, but greatly conceded for lottery.

No returns as yet from Nye and Humboldt.

IN CARSON.

At 1:30 the count read more than two to one for lottery. Out of 364 votes counted, the Louisiana people had only got 110 votes.

Empire was 58 majority for the lottery and the anti-lottery fiction concede the county by 300 majority.

Katie Putman and Billy Emerson

"The Putman-Emerson combination," namely, Katie Putman, the most popular soubrette actress on the American stage, and Billy Emerson, the famous minstrel, comedian and singer, is the very latest novelty in the theatrical world. Katie Putman played the most successful engagement of the present season at the Alcazar Theater, San Francisco, closing last Sunday night to "standing room only," and crowds of people turned away. Billy Emerson closed his long season of the Emerson Minstrels at the Bijou Theater the same night, and was on the point of starting East, where he is under contract to appear at Dockstader's Broadway Theater next June, when Mr. Matt. L. Berry, manager of the Katie Putman Company, appeared on the scene and offered Mr. Emerson a salary which took the minstrel man's breath away, and in less than half an hour the contract was made for the famous Billy Emerson to appear in white face at every performance of the Katie Putman Company between San Francisco and New York. W. C. Crosbie, Miss Nellie Strickland, George Neville, and the staunch character actor, H. B. Emery, are the leading members of Miss Putman's excellent company, who will appear at the Opera House next Thursday night in he comedy drama by C. T. Dazy entitled, "Erma, The Elf," which has met with the most pronounced success throughout the entire country. J. F. Berry, business manager of the company, is in the city with his paint brush.

Jim Yerington's Legs.

Jim Yerington who was the leader of the Kermis Minuet is very fond of the figure cut by his legs. His legs were never before given any special prominence in public. Anatomically they are not exactly like Dixie's the Adonis of the stage. The calves seem to have all run down into the feet.
He has been a chaffed good deal by his friends, but he stands it like a major and in order to show how little effect the chaff has on him he has gone to the expense of having them photographed and when ever a man or woman makes cutting remarks about them he gravely hands out a photograph to which he attaches his autograph and explains that these legs are hereditary with him. It is not true that a girl who saw them on the stage went to the door keeper and demanded her money back.

Wanted.

If James Drake Bolton last heard of in 1874 as residing at Austin, Nevada, (in employ of M. M.
Egan, Esq.,) or his representative, apply to the undersigned he will hear of something to his advantage.

land.
